

WANTED Six rocks like these to landscape around Harvard

Red Deer Flying Club COPA Flight 92

NEWSLETTER

The November 16th meeting of the Red Deer Flying Club will feature the color-slide presentation of Jim Munawych's flight to Inuvik. The meeting will start at 7:30 PM as usual. We will also have the election of officers for the coming year.

At the last executive meeting and the last general meeting, it was agreed that we could finish the landscaping project around the Harvard by using attractive stones like those in the above photo. The problem is locating stones of the appropriate size. We need your help. If anyone knows where we can obtain stones of this size and shape please phone one of the people on the executive.

We notice that the Club House is being booked quite regularly by several groups. These people need to realize that CASARA would have instant priority if they were called out on a real search. We also remind people that bookings are made on an electronic calendar by: going to www.calendar.yahoo.com use an ID of rdfc11 password fc1215 be sure to enter a phone number as a contact contact one of us on the executive re payment

We are really pleased that Norm Vienneau has begun working on a website for the club. We have had a couple of previews and it will be really nice. Hopefully you will be able to check for upcoming programs and events, view lots of neat airplane pictures, and click onto links that will take you to all sorts of interesting places. In order to have "lots of neat airplane pictures" our members will have to do their part and supply them to us. So please, submit the best picture you have of your plane to Norm as soon as possible.

For a peek at the work in progress go to:
www.reddeerflyingclub.org

We also need ideas for programs during the winter. What would you really like to hear or see?

How about a "swap shop night" where everybody brought something that they would like to sell or give away?

Election of officers for the Club will take place at the November meeting. Please be ready to support your club.
