Visit our website:

Our new website is up and running. Lindsey Loring, who works for Abe Derksen at John Deere has re-designed it and has made some really interesting changes. We received pictures of airplanes from some owners but not all. Please send me, Bert, at skyhawk@telusplanet.net ). Please use the best picture you have of your plane so that it can be included as we change the new web-page and make it more interesting.
